Accounting Pilot & Bridge Project

In Collaboration With The Pathways Commission

Introduction

As a participant in the Accounting Pilot and Bridge Project (APBP), you have been selected to participate in a survey. As the letter you received from Dan Deines indicates this survey is VERY important. A large response sends a clear signal to the College Board about the high level of interest and the strong commitment of high school accounting teachers to the creation of AP Accounting. Please take 15 minutes from your very busy schedules to complete the survey as soon as possible. The survey is concerning high school environments, high school business courses, and high school accounting educators. Your responses to the survey are anonymous and will be used to begin construction of a profile for business/accounting instruction in the secondary education setting. We understand high school business teachers enter the profession through various avenues and expect each person will have individual experiences we hope to capture through your responses. The profile will be used by accounting professionals and post-secondary academics to better understand your unique environment and to reach out and build relationships with both you and your students.

The research being conducted has two objectives. The primary objective is to understand the diversity (1) between high schools and districts, (2) within the business and accounting courses being offered, and (3) across the education and experience of the accounting teachers. The secondary objective is to provide information to The Pathways Commission on Accounting Higher Education, an organization comprised of both accounting practitioners (AICPA) and accounting educators (AAA). The Commission is currently working with the College Board to develop an AP Accounting course for high school students.

Your participation in the survey is appreciated and a necessary component in our efforts to gain an AP designation for college level high school accounting courses. Once the survey is complete, you will be given the option to complete a second survey where you will provide your name and contact information for a chance to win one of five $50 Amazon Gift certificates through a random drawing of those who choose to participate.

Your participation is completely voluntary and you may quit participating at any time. You will not be personally identified based on your answers. The survey will keep participants completely anonymous

*Due to the authors' affiliation with universities and Institutional Review Board (IRB) regulations, we are REQUIRED to DISCLOSE the following: We are obligated to identify potential harm you might experience through participation in any survey or experiment. We believe the risk of harm from participation in this survey is minimal. For example, you may experience slight anxiety or frustration as you work through the survey. By continuing, you imply your consent to participate.
